

Sarah Hyser-Staub

Sarah is a litigation attorney and co-chair of the White Collar Defense & Internal Investigations Group at McNeese Wallace & Nurick in Harrisburg. She helps business owners and public leaders navigate crises by safeguarding their rights and protecting them from government overreach. In her civil litigation practice, Sarah defends public and private entities in civil rights cases and represents businesses in complex contract challenges and commercial disputes.

Sarah also has a robust pro bono practice. She works with the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania's Court Assisted Re-Entry Program (CARE), which helps individuals re-enter society following incarceration. She is a member of the federal court's Criminal Justice Act panel, through which she represents indigent federal defendants. She also provides assistance to military veterans facing legal challenges, including criminal charges.

Prior to joining McNeese, Sarah was a law clerk for The Late Honorable William W. Caldwell, United States District Judge. She graduated summa cum laude from Penn State Law in 2013.

Sarah proudly serves as a member of the Junior Board of the YWCA of Greater Harrisburg, the Harrisburg Rotary Club, and the Dauphin County Bar Association Board of Directors. She was a member of the Leadership Harrisburg Class of 2020 and a recipient of the Central Penn Business Journal's Forty Under 40 award in 2021.
