

Zane Gizzi

Zane Gizzi has been a member of Rotary since 2010, first in the Rotary Club of Reading (PA) where he served two years as Club President, the Rotary Club of York (PA), and currently, the Hershey Rotary Club. His connection with Rotary spans four decades.

As a senior in college in 1983, Zane was recruited as a member of the committee to establish, plan and implement the RYLA program in RI District 7280 (Northwestern PA). Zane served as the on-site Director that year and for the next decade until moving to Central PA where he has served as a RYLA presenter for more than 20 years. For his work with the RYLA program, he was named an Honorary Paul Harris Fellow in 1994. Mr. Gizzi was also selected to represent District 7280 as a member of a Rotary Group Study Exchange team that traveled for a month in Eastern Switzerland that same year.

Zane began his career in college admissions at Xavier University (Cincinnati, OH) before returning to his alma mater, Westminster College (New Wilmington, PA) for nine years as Assistant/Associate Director of Admissions. He currently serves as a Major Gift Officer for the Penn State College of Medicine and Hilton S. Hershey Medical Center PA after holding development positions at York College, Alvernia University, Lancaster Catholic High School and Elizabethtown College.

Mr. Gizzi graduated magna cum laude from Westminster College and earned his Master's in Education from there, as well. A native of Warren, OH, he resides in Elizabethtown with his wife, Melissa. They have two adult daughters Morgan and Katie, who are both former RYLA attendees.
