VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES

Instruction-Corrective Action is Needed
Warning of Violation. Corrective Action is Needed or the Exchange will end. Notice of Violation. Exchange Ended. Student returns home. Notice of Violation. Exchange Ended. Student returns home. Driving Comments Driving are at a party where others under 21 are drinking, you will be arrested too. Driving or operating cars, trucks, 4-wheelers, snowmobiles, jet skis, lawn mowers and other motorized equipment are all prohibited. Driving or operating cars, trucks, 4-wheelers, snowmobiles, jet skis, lawn mowers and other motorized equipment are all prohibited. Touching the genitals and breasts of another person, and oral, anal and vaginal sex are all prohibited. It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes. Smoking cigarettes, Cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juni is prohibited. Romantic involvement with canother person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profamily or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disfigurement Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Falling grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend dass are examples of violations. School Work Falling grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations.		Penalty Card			Explanation of Penalty
Notice of Violation. Exchange Ended. Student returns home. Notice of Violation. Exchange Ended. Student returns home.					InstructionCorrective Action is Needed
Notice of Violation. Exchange Ended. Student returns home. VIOLATION 1st Penalty 2nd Penalty 3rd Penalty COMMENTS					Warning of Violation Corrective Action is Needed or the
Drinking Drinking is illegal for anyone under the age of 21 years. If you are at a party where others under 21 are drinking, you will be arrested too. Drugs Drugs Drug possession and use is illegal. You will be arrested. Driving or operating cars, trucks, 4-wheelers, snowmobiles, jet skis, lawn mowers and other motorized equipment are all prohibited. Touching the genitals and breasts of another person, and oral, anal and vaginal sex are all prohibited. It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes. Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juul is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disrespect Disrigurement Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phone is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events, except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. School Work Excessive use prompte in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your					- Drinking Drinking is illegal for anyone under the age of 21 years. If you are at a party where others under 21 are drinking, you will be arrested too. Drugs Drugs Drug possession and use is illegal. You will be arrested. Driving or operating cars, trucks, 4-wheelers, snowmobiles, jet skis, lawn mowers and other motorized equipment are all prohibited. Touching the genitals and breasts of another person, and oral, anal and vaginal sex are all prohibited. It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes. Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juul is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disrespect Disrigurement Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phone is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events, except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. School Work Excessive use prompte in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your Drinking Drinking is illegal for anyone under the age of 21 years. If you are at a party where others under 21 are drinking, you will be arrested too.					Notice of Violation. Exchange Ended. Student returns home.
Drinking is illegal for anyone under the age of 21 years. If you are at a party where others under 21 are drinking, you will be arrested too. Drugs Drug possession and use is illegal. You will be arrested. Driving or operating cars, trucks, 4-wheelers, snowmobiles, jet skis, lawn mowers and other motorized equipment are all prohibited. Driving Driving Prohibited. Touching the genitals and breasts of another person, and oral, anal and vaginal sex are all prohibited. It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes. Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juul is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girifriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family srules, or not joining your host family for meals or activitys rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activitys; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Hair coloring, tatoos, piecings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you leave. Disfigurement Excessive use end computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class a round arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class and serves are examples of violations. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. School Work
Drinking is illegal for anyone under the age of 21 years. If you are at a party where others under 21 are drinking, you will be arrested too. Drugs Drug possession and use is illegal. You will be arrested. Driving or operating cars, trucks, 4-wheelers, snowmobiles, jet skis, lawn mowers and other motorized equipment are all prohibited. Touching the genitals and breasts of another person, and oral, anal and vaginal sex are all prohibited. It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes. Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juul is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boylend or girifriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family srules, or not joining your host family for meals or activites; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Disfigurement Excessive use ends sus use in class a cloud book when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phone is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class a round in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. School Work Students must respond to email messages to confirm your	VIOLATION	1ct Donalty	2nd Donalty	2rd Donalty	COMMENTS are at a party where others under 21 are drinking, you will be arrested too. Drugs Drug possession and use is illegal. You will be arrested. Driving or operating cars, trucks, 4-wheelers, snowmobiles, jet skis, lawn mowers and other motorized equipment are all prohibited. Touching the genitals and breasts of another person, and oral, anal and vaginal sex are all prohibited. It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes. Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of thewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange duent. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juul is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Rawning and the company of the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disrespect Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. School Work Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations.	VIOLATION	1st Fellalty	Zilu Peliaity	Siu Peliaity	COMMENTS Driugs Drug possession and use is illegal. You will be arrested. Drug possession and use is illegal. You will be arrested. Driving or operating cars, trucks, 4-wheelers, snowmobiles, jet skis, lawn mowers and other motorized equipment are all prohibited. Touching the genitals and breasts of another person, and oral, anal and vaginal sex are all prohibited. It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes. Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or jud is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girffriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Dating Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family for meals or activities, 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disfigurement Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Disfigurement Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family for more volueave. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. School Work Students must respond to email messages to confirm your Drugs Drug possession and use is illegal. You will be arrested. Driving or operating cars, trucks, 4-wheelers, snowmobiles, jet skis, lawn mowers and other motorized equipment are all prohibited. Touching the genitals and breasts of another person, and oral, anal and vaginal sex are all prohibited. Sex It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase digarettes. Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic digarette or juul is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girifriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disfigurement Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. School Work Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations.	Drinking Driving or operating cars, trucks, 4-wheelers, snowmobiles, jet skis, lawn mowers and other motorized equipment are all prohibited. Touching the genitals and breasts of another person, and oral, anal and vaginal sex are all prohibited. It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes. Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juul is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disfigurement Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. School Work Students must respond to email messages to confirm your skis, lawn mowers and other motorized equipment are all prohibited. Touching the genitals and breasts of another person, and oral, anal and vaginal sex are all prohibited. It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes. Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juul is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disrespect Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. School Work Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your	Drugs				Drug possession and use is illegal. You will be arrested.
skis, lawn mowers and other motorized equipment are all prohibited. Touching the genitals and breasts of another person, and oral, anal and vaginal sex are all prohibited. It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes. Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juul is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disrespect Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. School Work Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your					Driving or operating cars, trucks, 4-wheelers, snowmobiles, jet Touching the genitals and breasts of another person, and oral, anal and vaginal sex are all prohibited. It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes. Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juul is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family's rules, or not joining your family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disrespect Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. School Work Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your					skis, lawn mowers and other motorized equipment are all
It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes. Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juul is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disrespect Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your	Driving				prohibited.
It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes. Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juul is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disrespect Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your					Touching the genitals and breasts of another person, and oral,
Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juul is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disrespect Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your	Sex				anal and vaginal sex are all prohibited.
Smoking cigarettes, cigars, or pipes, and use of chewing tobacco is not acceptable for any exchange student. Vaping or possession of any electronic cigarette or juul is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disrespect Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your Smoking Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disrespect Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your					It is illegal for students under 18 to purchase cigarettes.
Smoking Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disrespect Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your Romantic involvement with another person is prohibited. Be friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your	Smoking friends with many people but do not have a boyfriend or girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Disrespect Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. School Work School Work Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your					, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , girlfriend. Taking a date to homecoming or the prom is permitted. Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family's rules, or not joining your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your Dating Examples: 1. Talking during presentations to a group, such as in a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your	Dating
a classroom or at a Rotary event; 2. Not following your host family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your					Evamples: 1 Talking during procentations to a group such as in family's rules, or not joining your host family for meals or activities; 3. Profanity or sexual language or images on Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your Facebook or other social media. 4. Using a cell phone at meals or in the car. Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your Disfigurement Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your Hair coloring, tatoos, piercings, and similar changes to your body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your	Disrespect body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your	P
body or appearance are prohibited. How you look when you arrived at the airport is how you will look when you leave. Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your					Hair coloring tatoos piercings and similar changes to your Disfigurement Excessive use of computers, laptops, tablets, and cell phones is prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your	Disfigurement prohibited. Excessive use means use in class at school, at rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your					Evenseive use of computers lantons tablets and cell phones is rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you from your host family and friends. Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your					rotary events (except photos), and in ways that isolate you
School Work failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your	Devices				from your host family and friends.
School Work failing to attend class are examples of violations. Students must participate in District and club activities. Students must respond to email messages to confirm your					Failing grades, failure to complete homework on time, and
Students must respond to email messages to confirm your	School Work
Students must respond to email messages to confirm your					Students must participate in District and club activities
	Rotary Activities

Penalty Cards are issued by District Officers. Other warnings may be issued by host families, counselors, or others, but do not count as penalty cards. Except in extenuating circumstances, penalty cards will be issued at least one week apart.